

Georgia Public Service Commission

Contact: Tim Echols
Phone: 404-463-0214
www.psc.state.ga.us

244 Washington St S.W.
Atlanta, Georgia 30334
Phone: 404-656-4501
Toll free: 1- 800-282-5813
Fax: 404-656-2341

For Immediate Release

42-17

MEDIA ADVISORY FROM THE OFFICE OF COMMISSIONER TIM ECHOLS Clean Energy Roadshow and Seminar September 19, 2017 in Macon, Georgia

Moderated by Tim Echols, Georgia Public Service Commission, and Don Francis, Executive Director, Clean Cities Georgia, with Welcome
Remarks from State Representative Bubber Epps

What: Clean Energy Roadshow and Seminar

Who: Panels of experts in energy efficiency, utilities, renewable energy and alternative fuel vehicles join project managers from corporate, government and community sustainability to present ideas on planning, financing and implementing sustainable, cost-saving projects. Vehicle and product demonstrations with ride and drive opportunities.

When: 8 a.m. – 11 a.m.

Outdoor Vehicle Display and Test Drives 7:30 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.

Tuesday September 19, 2017

Where: Middle Georgia Regional Commission

175 Emery Highway, Suite C

Macon, Georgia 31217

ATLANTA – August 28, 2017 – Public Service Commissioner Tim Echols will host the Macon Clean Energy Roadshow and Seminar on Tuesday September 19, 2017 from 8 a.m. to 11 a.m. at the Middle Georgia Regional Commission offices, 175 Emery Hwy STE C, Macon, Georgia 31217. Clean Cities Georgia Executive Director Don Francis will also moderate the event along with Commissioner Echols. State Representative Bubber Epps, District 144, will bring welcome remarks.

The event is free. Interested persons may register at: www.CleanEnergyRoadshow.com/Events
Phone: 678-390-2737

The Road Show will feature presentations and panels of experts including:

Natural Gas Association of Georgia; Southern Company Gas; Georgia Power Company; Energy + Environment; Hannah Solar; Clipper Creek; Alliance AutoGas; Greenlots; Nissan USA LEAF; Yancey Bus; Blue Bird Bus; Wade Ford; BYD Bus; Green 4U Technologies.

The agenda topics include : Electric Vehicles, Compressed Natural Gas and Propane Autogas; Launching an Alternative Fuel Vehicle plan for Commercial, Transit and Municipal applications; Selecting the Right “fuel-fit” by User Application; Utilizing Utility Rate Programs and Rebates; Evaluating Total Cost of Ownership (TCO) and Financing Options; Estimating ROI; Lighting Retrofits with LED’s; Solar and Battery Storage Power Solutions; The Warner-Robins AFB Solar project; Benefits of Community and Highway EV Charging for tourism, retail and job growth.

"Our Clean Energy Roadshow and Seminar focuses on educating business and civic leaders on how new technologies will benefit government and business," said Commissioner Echols.

On site media contact is Bill Edge, Public Information Officer, Georgia Public Service Commission, phone 404-406-5120. For more information on the 2017 Clean Energy Roadshow, visit www.cleanenergyroadshow.com, or call 678--390-2737.

This is Commissioner Echols’ second term on the Georgia Public Service Commission as he was re-elected statewide in November 2016. This is the 7th year he has hosted his Clean Energy Roadshow across the state. You can find his complete biography and photo on the Commission web site at <http://www.psc.state.ga.us/pscinfo/bios/echols.asp?tab=Tab2>.

State Representative Bubber Epps has served in the General Assembly since 2009. He represents District 144 which is comprised of Bleckley, Twiggs and Wilkinson Counties as well as parts of Bibb, Houston, Jones and Laurens Counties. He most recently co-chaired the Joint Study Committee on Alternative Fuel Infrastructure and Vehicles. His complete biography is found at <http://www.house.ga.gov/Documents/Biographies/eppsBubber.pdf>.

###